ABOUT NOIDA

Noida is a planned city in India's northern state of Uttar Pradesh. The riverside Okhla Bird Sanctuary is home to migratory and native birds, plus jackals and butterflies. Plants at the Botanic Garden of Indian republic include water lilies and cacti. The ISKCON Noida temple has a diorama depicting the life of Lord Krishna. Southwest of Noida, Surajkund Lake is a 10th century reservoir with the ruins of a sun temple. Other top sites for visit in Noida or its nearby locations are: Ski India Snow Adventure Park, Worlds of Wonder, Kidzania Delhi NCR, Swarn Jayanti Park, The Great India Place Theme Park, Mall of India, St. Mary's Church, Rani Avanti Bai Pak, Sunderbans National Park and many other such places.

Being a part of National Capital Region (NCR) NOIDA has an overall very good connectivity. The nearest airport is Indira Gandhi International Airport.

About the Theme

Indian food heritage is a mixture of art and science and is exceptionally vast and diverse. 'Annam Parabrahma Swaroopam'-Loosely translated as 'Food is like God' is part of our collective conscience and our ethos. Indian cuisine has evolved over a period of time, both, through a process of internal churning and also because of various foreign influences. This Conference attempts to reflect upon the history and evolution of our cuisine along with the deliberations on modern trends such as fusion and health food concepts. Given our rich food heritage, this conference will also explore the possibility of developing India as a significant culinary destination in the world.

The indicative sub-themes will include topics such as (In specific context to Indian sub-continent only)-

- History of Indian Cuisine
- Evolution of Cuisine, Eating habits & Foreign influences
- Food and its socio-cultural significance
- Popular food items and their history
- Culinary tourism in India
- Street food culture in Indian cities
- Food and Religion
- Food and Ayurveda
- Marketing of Indian Cuisine
- Modern trends in Indian Cuisine

Note: The above mentioned list of sub-themes is not an exhaustive one. Related researches would also be highly appreciated.

❖ Objectives of the Conference

- Deliberations on the rich heritage of Indian cuisine
- Provide a platform to Policy makers, Academicians, Industry experts, and Research scholars to share their research and views
- Publications of selected research papers in the form of edited book with ISBN/ Research Journal
- Contribution towards knowledge building and recording of the rich history and heritage of Indian cuisine
- Platform for social contact and professional networking among academicians and industry professionals

The conference will include key note addresses on both days of Conference by leading culinary experts and food Historians of the country along with paper presentations by academicians and scholars.
